Activity Updates

GHANA

Recently the council funded a project to bring water to a community in Ghana. The boreholes were drilled in a community known as Tom in the Nandom district.

TOOTSIE ROLLS

Troy & Phyllis Mills found a wonderful use for our left over Tootsie Rolls. They put them into Easter Bags. 200 with socks and other candies went to Catholic Charities Family Support Center in Olathe. The remaining 350 Easter bags, with other treats and toys, were handed out by the Starfish Project Foundation. SUPER JOB, Troy & Phyllis.

Catholic Facts

The first church council, which set the precedent for all subsequent meetings, took place at Jerusalem about AD 50 and was attended by the Apostles. The first general council representing the bishops of the whole world occurred at Nicaea in Asia Minor in 325. The Roman Catholic Church has held 21 such assemblies, though only three (Trent, Vatican I, and Vatican II) have been held since the mid-16th century. [1]

Catholic Symbols

Relics

There are three classes of relics. First Class Relics: These are bits of the mortal remains of saints. Second Class Relics: These are items of clothing worn by the saint or items used by the saint. Third Class Relics: These are items that a saint touched or that have been touched to a first or second class relic of a saint. [2]

1ST SUNDAY CHURCH PODIUM

Brother Knights. We have agreed to man the podium that is in the gathering area at all masses on the first Sunday of each month.

We will need 1 or 2 Brother Knights to be there for 15 minutes before and after each mass. We will have brochures and booklets etc. to pass out that will promote the Knights and our council.

Please contact the John Williams (call / text 913-515-8872) if you can help.

OLD SETTLERS

Old Settlers will some be here and we are in need of a person to oversee the daily operations at the Old Settlers site this year. Jon Thielen can fill you in on all the details. You can contact him at thielen.jonathan78@gmail.com.
