Activity Updates

STREET CLEANUP

On June 3rd we had quite a crew scouring a section of Mur-Len for litter. Thank You all for helping our community.

From L to R:

Jackson Boehm, John Guerdan, Brian Timberlake,
Logan Boehm, Tim Walker, Andy Boehm, Oscar Horn.

CORPUS CHRISTI

Once again, the council was asked to fire up our grill and do some cooking for the Corpus Christi celebration. And as usual our crew put on a very tasty spread. Thanks to all who helped out.

Catholic Facts

In the day-to-day exercise of his primatial jurisdiction, the pope relies on the assistance of the Roman Curia. The Curia originated in the local body of presbyters (priests), deacons (lower order of clergy), and notaries (lower clerics with secretarial duties) upon which, like other bishops in their own dioceses, the early bishops of Rome relied for help. By the 11th century this body had been narrowed to include only the leading (or cardinal) presbyters and deacons of the Roman diocese and broadened to embrace the cardinal bishops. [1]

Catholic Symbols

Chasuble

Chasuble, called in Latin casula planeta or poenula, and in early Gallic sources amphibalus, the principal and most conspicuous Mass vestment. Like the other sacred vestments the chasuble, before use, requires to be blessed by a priest who has faculties for that purpose. When assumed in vesting for Mass, the act is accompanied with a prayer which speaks of the chasuble as the “yoke of Christ”. But another symbolism is indicated by the form attached to the bestowal of the chasuble in the ordination services: “Receive”, says the bishop, “the priestly vestment, by which is signified charity.” [2]
